

QUICK DRAW WORKSHEET

Scenario:

On December 6, 1960, Maurice Pennington went on a trip with a group of college students from Atlanta. Maurice Pennington was a Black photojournalist and cartoonist working for the Atlanta Inquirer. This trip was an organized protest to test out the Supreme Court case, Boynton v Virginia, which made segregation on interstate buses illegal. They traveled into the southern states of Alabama, Florida, Tennessee, and South Carolina. On the trip, Pennington, along with others was arrested for his involvement.

Draw an image here to represent the caption above.

