A youngster was recently called on in school to name some distinguished people of the country. The lad started right out without any hesitation whatever. He said: "Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Henderson, Taylor, Tyler, Greely, Colfax, Green, Calhoun, Clay—" "Well," said the teacher. "we want you to name some prominent colored people; give them to us." The lad replied that he didn't know any, that he had never read of them, nor had he ever seen their pictures in history.

And just so it is with many others. What is the reason? Because you don't get those things in the histories used in the schools. You should have them at home. This picture is filling a long left vacancy. You should have one just as soon as Uncle Sam could bring it to you. Send in your order right away.

Here is where your two chances come in. What else could you do to do more good for the race than sell one of these pictures to every colored person in your county? It sells readily at $1.00. We give you liberal commission and you make good money. Send 15c for an outfit and begin right away.

MRS. HANNAH C. WALKER, Proprietress.

176 Warren Avenue,
 CHICAGO, ILL., Oct., 22, 1902.

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

CECELIA STOWE.

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.
