

MONUMENT ANALYSIS

Student Name(s): Jane Smith

Monument Name: Henry W. Grady Statue

Date Installed: October 21, 1891

Location: Intersection of Marietta & Forsyth Streets

WHO	WHAT	WHY
Is it for? Paid for it? Created it? Does it depict?	Type of monument is it? Is it made of? Does it look like? Does it depict? Emotions or actions is it meant to inspire?	Was it created? Would someone want to memorialize this subject?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Alexander Doyle, sculptor</li> <li>- Doyle also made Hill monument in Atlanta and met Grady at that time.</li> <li>- Governors and senators from around the nation will attend opening event.</li> <li>- Committee of local men raised $20,000 after Grady's death to create</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- bronze statue</li> <li>- 1.5 times life size</li> <li>- Shows Grady with papers in his hand addressing the public.</li> <li>- a statue of a woman sitting is on either side.</li> <li>- Woman on eastern side represents memory.</li> <li>- Woman on western side represents history.</li> <li>- Also includes several quotes from Grady.</li> </ul>	According to newspapers then: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Grady was "grandest, most patriotic and most unselfish statesman that Georgia has ever produced."</li> <li>- "The people of Atlanta in thus honoring his memory honored themselves."</li> <li>- Grady was "patriot."</li> <li>- Importance of his role as editor of the Atlanta Constitution.</li> </ul> According to historians and people now: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Grady was nationally recognized journalist who was key for upholding white supremacist ideology</li> </ul>
SOURCES 3/16/1890 - Columbus Enquirer-Sun, Columbus, GA            9/5/1891 - The Morning News, Savannah, GA            10/23/1891 - The Times-Journal, Eastman, GA            10/29/1891 - The Sandersville Herald, Sandersville, GA            Wikipedia - "The Statue of Henry W. Grady"		