

MONUMENT PROPOSAL

Student Name(s):

Directions: Now that you've examined other ways society memorializes people and events from our shared history, it is time to use your creativity to create a proposal for a NEW monument or memorial art piece that commemorates the events and remembers the victims of the 1906 Atlanta Race Massacre. Use the first page to think through the who, what, why and the second page to get into the details.

Monument Name:

Location:

WHO	WHAT	WHY
Is it for? Paid for it? Created it? Does it depict?	Type of monument is it? Is it made of? Does it look like? Does it depict? Emotions or actions is it meant to inspire?	Was it created? Would someone want to memorialize this subject?

MONUMENT PROPOSAL

Use the space below to share more details of proposed monument or memorial. Utilize whatever creative skills you feel most comfortable with. You might draw a sketch of your proposed statue, write out a poem you've created to memorialize the event, write a few paragraphs detailing the monument you are proposing, or lay out the lyrics and a description of the sound of a song you've written.
